CALROSSIE VICTOR 1899133

His modern type won him the World's Fair grand championship
and we now
offer it to you through his calves.

WE cordially invite all lovers of good Scotch Shorthorn cattle to be with us on the occasion of our First Auction Sale. Although the Rockhaven Herd is less than six years old, we were fortunate to have selected a wonderfully prolific foundation group and the herd has increased to a total of more than one hundred head. This being more than we can accommodate, we have decided to share them with the public. We will sell approximately half of our cows, half of the heifers and all of the bulls that have reached saleable age.

Our herd is maintained on a practical farm basis and the cattle are being offered in ideal condition to insure their future usefulness. The offering will feature the get and service of our World's Fair grand champion bull Calrossie Victor. We do not wish to praise our own cattle unduly. This well illustrated catalog will provide you with assurance that the cattle are well bred and good individuals. We are especially proud of the thick, blocky calves sired by Calrossie Victor and we offer them with confidence that they will work improvement wherever they go. We call special attention to the large number of calves that will go free with their dams and the liberal number of females that are close to calving. We hope you can be with us on sale day.

L. D. & J. B. Rockwell.

Please bring this catalog with you to the sale.

As indicated by the above picture, the Shorthorns at Rockhaven Farm, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa are provided with abundant shade and water. From a foundation of modest size, L. D. & J. B. Rockwell, owners, have built the Rockhaven Herd to over one hundred head in a very few years.

— HELFRED SPOTLIGHT —

We purchased this bull in the recent Helfred Farms Sale at the top price of $2,000. We made a diligent search for the right young bull to cross with the daughters of the San Francisco World's Fair grand champion Calrossie Victor and we are certain that we have selected the right one. He is an individual of championship form and has a pedigree that insures a successful breeding career. We want you to see him on sale day and judge for yourself. We expect to mate a few of the sale heifers to him.

This Is Your Opportunity to Buy the Blood of a Famous Grand Champion

The eyes of the entire Shorthorn cattle breeding fraternity were focused on Rockhaven Farm following the purchase of Calrossie Victor. His show record had been so brilliant that his name and fame were known wherever Shorthorn cattle were known. As a culmination to his show ring career he won the supreme grand championship at the San Francisco World's Fair in 1939. Upon retirement to the strong herd of his owner, W. C. Anderson & Son, he began the sensational breeding career that is being continued at Rockhaven Farms. One of his sons, Rockhaven Victor, won grand championship at the 1942 Minnesota State Fair and is now in service in the herd of Olson Bros., East Grand Forks, Minn. Three other sons are making good records in the well known herds of Millard R. Eakin, Grass Valley, Oregon, Otto H. Sandfort, St. Charles, Mo., and Ben J. Kallal, Jerseyville, Ill.

At Rockhaven he is siring calves of either sex that are remarkably thick, blocky and of most modern type. Eleven of his sons and daughters will sell as single lots in this sale and all of the cows and heifers old enough to breed will either have calves at foot by him or will carry his service.

The type and quality that won the highest honors for Calrossie Victor in the show ring is apparent in his calves. This auction provides a fine opportunity to secure this improving blood. — Hal Longley of The Shorthorn World.

Rockhaven Victor, the son of Calrossie Victor that was awarded the grand championship at the 1942 Minnesota State Fair. He is now owned by Olson Bros., East Grand Forks, Minn. In 1942 he won senior and grand championship at Great Falls and Billings, Mont., the South Dakota and Minnesota State Fairs and was first prize bull at the Kansas State Fair.
